

MATPRA Media Marketplace

Gettysburg, Pennsylvania    September 14-17, 2010

Guest Policy

MATPRA Media Marketplace 2010 is open to invited journalists only. Guests may accompany journalists to Gettysburg and share a room at the Eisenhower Hotel, but they cannot take part in MATPRA events, such as meals, tours and the Marketplace.

Only those wearing the MATPRA Media Marketplace badge will be permitted to attend events and activities associated with the conference.

Guests - whether they are family or friends - are more than welcome to accompany journalists to explore Gettysburg and Adams County, Pa., on their own. The Gettysburg Convention & Visitors Bureau is happy to provide guides and materials for guests who accompany MATPRA journalists.
