

MATPRA Media Marketplace

Gettysburg, Pennsylvania    September 14-17, 2010

Transportation Information

Transportation to and from the MATPRA Media Marketplace is the responsibility of each journalist. The Gettysburg CVB, however, is happy to work with journalists who are traveling by air or train.

Complimentary shuttle service is available upon request to journalists who are traveling into BWI Airport in Baltimore, Harrisburg International Airport (HIA), or by Amtrak at the station in Harrisburg.

Shuttle service is available from these location to the Eisenhower Hotel on Tuesday, Sept. 14th, and Friday, Sept. 17th, unless special arrangements are made.

Amtrak schedules can be found at www.amtrak.com

Transportation in and around Gettysburg during the conference is taken care of. In addition, trolley service is available for guests of MATPRA journalists while they are attending the conference.

Please let us know of your transportation plans as soon as possible, so we can do our best to accommodate your needs.

For more information on transportation, contact Carl Whitehill, Media Relations Manager with the Gettysburg Convention & Visitors Bureau, at (717) 338-1055 or by email at cwhitehill@gettysburg.travel.
